

Alleviate - to relieve; improve partially

Analogous-comparable

Arbitrary-not based on reason or evidence

Attain-reach, achieve, accomplish

Audacious-daring, bold

Brief-concise, succinct

Catalyst-something causing change

Commensurate with – proportional with

Comprehensive-of large content or scope

Converge-to approach, tend to meet, come together

Commence-to begin; start

Conceive-to form (a notion, opinion, purpose)

Convolutd-twisted, complicated

Daunt-discourage

Delineate-represent, depict

Desultory-random, disconnected

Deterrent-something that discourages or hinders

Dichotomy-division between two usually contradictory parts

Discrepancy-difference between

Disjointed-lacking order or coherence

Disseminate-to cause information to go to many people, to spread

Distorted-twisted, difformed

Diverge-extend in different directions

Equating-being the equivalent of

Endeavour –attempt to achieve something

Elicit-bring forth, provoke, evoke

Endowed with an ability -possess the ability

Engender-produce, cause, give rise to

Exacerbate-aggravate, make worse, increase severity

Facilitate-make less difficult

Hinder communication – to prevent communication

Immutable-unchangeable

Impeccable -without fault or error

Impede-hinder, block

Incentive-a motivating factor

Incidence-rate or range of occurrence of something

Mitigate-alleviate, become less harsh or severe

Mundane-worldly as opposed to spiritual

Oblivious to – totally unaware of something

Paradigm-an example that serves as a pattern or model

Paramount-of the utmost importance

Perfunctory-superficial

Propensity-inclination, tendency

Relentless-steady and persistent

Tenuous-not certain, unconvincing (argument)

Transcend boundaries – surpass, go beyond certain limits

Unbiased-impartial